

Not Resolved

Votes of the Consensus Working Group Did Not Achieve 80% For These Items When Polled as Discrete Questions

Scope

- Whether the algorithm should address the management of traumatic subarachnoid hemorrhage
- Whether the algorithm should separately address the management of patients who are or are not autoregulating
- Whether the algorithm should address the management of coagulopathy

Treatments:

- the temperature below which TBI patients should be warmed
- use of computerized pupillometry
- nuances of hyperosmolar therapy
 - whether continuous infusion of hypertonic saline is a treatment option
- use of indomethacin for ICP control
- continuous vs. intermittent CSF drainage