

AGENDA, INTERNATIONAL EXPERT FORUM BARCELONA, 12-NOV-15

Time	Topic	Presenter
10.00-10.10	Welcome	Joan Colom
10.10-10.40	Alcohol, hypertension and the WHO targets	Lars Møller
10.40-11.00	The Expert Roundtable Project: A multi-disciplinary initiative to reduce the mortality burden of NCDs	Jürgen Rehm
11.00-11.40	BASIS: Current clinical practice for alcohol screening and intervention in hypertensive patients in Europe	Didier Duhot
11.40-12.00	20-year implementation of the Drink Less Program in Catalonia	Joan Colom
12.00-13.00	Lunch
13.00-13.20	Survey on lifestyle changes for hypertension management among German and international physicians	Reinhold Kreutz
13.20-13.45	Dual intervention for harmful alcohol use and hypertension in Catalonia, a demonstration study	Antoni Gual
13.45-14.10	Alcohol and hypertension, a primary care perspective	Carsten Grimm
14.10-14.30	Review of evidence-based solutions to reduce the public health impact of alcohol by Public Health England	Robyn Burton
14.30-15.00	The WHO NCD plan, an introduction to the status of the NCD plan	Michael Roerecke
15.00-15.30	Coffee break
15.30-16.10	Panel discussion: From expert recommendations to implementation, what does it take?	Helena Liira
16.10-16.50	Proposed Consensus Paper - Emphasising the need for action	Jürgen Rehm
16.50-17.00	Closure	Joan Colom